Use in binary form is permitted provided that the following conditions are met:

- You may copy and distribute copies of the Licensed Software in binary form as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty and give any other recipients of the Licensed Software an unmodified copy of this License along with the Licensed Software.

- If you use this software in a product, a hint in the product documentation is required.

- The name of Elektrobit may not be used to endorse or promote products derived from this software without specific prior written permission.

- The origin of this software must not be misrepresented; you must not claim that you wrote the original software.

- Altered versions have to be plainly marked as such and must not be misrepresented as being the original software.

- The Licensed Software has not to be decompiled into source code.

- This software is provided by the copyright holders and contributors "as is" and any express or implied warranties, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose are disclaimed. In no event, Elektrobit Automotive GmbH or contributors shall be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, exemplary, or consequential damages (including, but not limited to, procurement of substitute goods or services; loss of use, data, or profits; or business interruption) however caused and on any theory of liability, whether in contract, strict liability, or tort (including negligence or otherwise) arising in any way out of the use of this software, even if advised of the possibility of such damage.
